Dear Phd Students, dear Postdocs,

the Career Day 2019, organized by the Max Perutz Labs, is open to all Life Science Postdocs, graduating PhD students and is taking place on the 2nd and 3rd of December.

This year, the aim of the Career Day is to introduce new and exciting careers in Life Sciences. Through a number of workshops and a speed-dating event, you will get practical advice on how to transition to the career of your choice after a PhD or PostDoc.

Do not miss this great opportunity to plan and prepare the next step of your career in the field of Life Sciences!

The Max Perutz Labs Career Day consists of two parts:

WORKSHOPS: December 2nd; 3 workshops covering a wide range of topics to help strengthen your applications into different career paths.

JOB SPEED-DATING: December 3rd; Round-table discussions with invited speakers representing a wide range of career paths connected to Life Sciences.

The number of places for the workshops and the job speed-dating are limited.

Registration is free of charge.

Registration: careerday2019.maxperutzlabs@gmail.com

We are looking forward to your participation!
